ONLINE GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN ORGANIZATIONAL CHANGE

FOR: managers, leaders, researchers, organizational psychologists, consultants, executive coaches, and change agents.

LEARN: about organizational culture, leadership, conflict, and change across multiple levels of analysis.

APPLY: frameworks for organizational assessment, diagnosis, and intervention.

INSTRUCTED BY: faculty affiliated with the Center for the Study of Organizational Change with years of experience researching, writing, and consulting to public, private, and nonprofit organizations.

FORMAT: 12 credit hours, 100% online

ENROLL NOW: Contact the Harry S Truman School of Public Affairs or visit Mizzou Online.

COURSES

PA8160 Organizational Dynamics and Leadership
Learn theories of organization and leadership and related dimensions of organizational culture.

PA8620 Organizational Analysis and Change
Learn the social, ethical, and psychological dimensions of intervention theory and method for organizational change.

PA8630 Org. Change in a Community /Global Context
Increase multicultural competencies to facilitate effective organizational consulting, change efforts, and leadership in a global context.

PA8610 Group Dynamics and Conflict Resolution
Develop an understanding of the psychosocial and emotional roots of conflict, hatred, and terror within and between groups.

CONTACT

Emma Rogers
Truman School of Public Affairs
573-884-1656
truman.missouri.edu

Kelly Ross
Mizzou Online
1-800-609-3727
mizzouonline.missouri.edu